

Brhamari Painted Fortune Lager—Asheville, NC—

Inspired by both California and Kentucky style Common beers, this crisp yet complex brew is an easy drinker. Made for everyone from seasoned craft beer enthusiasts to first time craft sippers. This tasty liquid is crafted boasting locally sourced grain. 5.8%ABV

21st Amendment Blah Blah IPA—San Francisco, CA—

They have fun making great beers, and Blah IPA sure seemed like a good way to do it. Blah Blah Blah IPA is a maltier, amber-colored take of the traditional IPA. We incorporated some interesting malts including imported Baird Caramel 80, a darker, sweet crystal malt; Belgian biscuit malt to give it a toasty flavor; and German dark Munich malt for body and color. 7.7%ABV

Olde Hickory Ruby Lager—Hickory, NC—

A Vienna style lager brewed in the American tradition with choice malted barley, rice and corn along with hops from Germany and the Czech Republic. Ruby Lager is slightly malty and medium bodied with a toasted nutty finis 3.7%ABV

O'Connor El Guapo IPA—Norfolk, VA—

An aggressively hopped India Pale Ale brewed with the sweet nectar of the Blue Agave cactus, El Guapo, translated "the handsome one," looks sexy, smells beautiful, and feels great!

7.5%ABVWicked Weed Labonte Fig—Asheville, NC—

La Bonte is open fermented with our house Brettanomyces culture. This beer is then blended with a portion of Golden Sour and onto a half pound per gallon of whole figs. La Bonte is then aged in our Foeder until it reaches perfection. 6.5%ABV

Southern Pines Moore IPA—Southern Pines, NC—

This big, west coast style double IPA is bursting with citrus and tropical fruit flavors. It has plenty of sweet caramel malt flavors to complement the strong hop profile. 7.5%ABV

Unknown Ginger Wheat—Charlotte, NC—

Ginger Wheat has all the wonderful light citrus mouth feel of our No Shame wheat with the addition of just the right amount of ginger to have a light, creamy finish with bursts of flavor. 5.1%ABV

$11Allagash Interlude—Portland, ME—

Interlude somewhere between the leap and the landing. It's a jazz solo, the riffing, the unexpected improvisation. Rooted in a Belgian theme, Interlude soars from a second fermentation with our own Brettanomyces yeast. Then takes five in French oak wine barrels that once cellared fine Merlots and Siirahs.
